Urgent appeal for donations Help for Cuba because of the terrible devastation caused by Hurricane Ian

The devastating consequences of Hurricane Ian, which hit the western provinces of Cuba and the capital Havana at speeds of up to 200 km/h, are a heavy blow to the people and institutions affected. Despite protective measures (such as evacuation of 50,000 people), immense damage was caused, local infrastructure was damaged, agricultural areas and homes were destroyed, and electricity was cut off nationwide. Cubans are suffering greatly.

The elaborate protective measures and the repair of the destruction are associated with high costs that Cuba alone is not able to bear. Therefore, Cuba urgently needs funds for the repair and reconstruction of schools, medical centres, residential buildings, roads, bridges, etc. Building materials, construction equipment, tools etc. have to be procured - which is made more difficult and more expensive because of the criminal US blockade against Cuba! And it is necessary to procure replacements for the destroyed agricultural products.

Due to the severity of the destruction and damage caused by the hurricane in Cuba, we are urgently appealing to send generous monetary donations for aid in Cuba.
